

SOCIAL EVENING & EXHIBITION

Lenin: Leader of the Russian Revolution

Friday 2 November 2018
Doors open 6.00pm

SCRSS 320 Brixton Road
London SW9 6AB

020 7274 2282
ruslibrary@scrss.org.uk
www.scrss.org.uk

The Society for Co-operation in Russian and Soviet Studies (SCRSS) and Marx Memorial Library & Workers' School (MML) host a social evening to mark the Russian Revolution anniversary and to provide a final opportunity to view the SCRSS exhibition Lenin: Leader of the Russian Revolution. Most of the exhibits will be on sale. These can be collected by arrangement after the exhibition closes on Sat 3 November. A selection of mugs, featuring striking designs from the SCRSS collections, will also be available to purchase. See the SCRSS website for more details. NB: Cash/cheques only.

ADMISSION: £5.00 - includes drinks and light refreshments

The Lenin: Leader of the Russian Revolution exhibition had a highly-successful run at the North Wall Gallery in Oxford in November 2017. It includes over 60 exhibits (photos & posters) all drawn from the archives of the SCRSS.

Society for Co-operation in scrss
Russian and Soviet Studies

MARX MEMORIAL LIBRARY & WORKERS' SCHOOL

The SCRSS centre is located at the corner of Brixton Road with Wynne Road
Nearest underground stations: Brixton (Victoria line), Oval (Northern line)

Buses: 3, 59, 133, 159, 415 (Loughborough Road stop)

See www.scrss.org.uk for more details