

Seminar programme

A two-day intensive seminar with stimulating lecture programme in Russian, 10.00–16.20 daily. Two parallel streams led by speakers direct from St Petersburg, Russia.

Russian language & linguistics:

Tatiana Piotrovskaya, Senior Lecturer, Department of English Philology and Language Culture Studies, Faculty of Philology, St Petersburg State University.

Contemporary Russian culture:

Dr Natalia Bogoliubova, Associate Professor, Department of International Cultural and Humanitarian Co-operation, Faculty of International Relations, St Petersburg State University.

Four 70-minute lectures per day, including discussion: choose one of two options per session, moving from one stream to another throughout the day as you wish.

Aimed at teachers of Russian, translators, interpreters, graduates and final-year undergraduates of Russian, and all those with an advanced-level comprehension of spoken Russian and an interest in contemporary Russia.

Morning and afternoon tea / coffee and biscuits included. Bring your own lunch or use local cafes.

Visit www.scrss.org.uk/russianseminar.htm for full details, including lecturer biographies, lecture programme, terms and conditions.
