About the Society for Co-operation in Russian & Soviet Studies

The SCRSS was established in July 1924 as the Society for Cultural Relations with the USSR and celebrated its Centenary in 2024. Today, the SCRSS is a library and cultural centre that promotes knowledge of the culture, language and history of Russia and the former Soviet Union (FSU). Our SCRSS Soviet Collections are a library and archive of the arts, humanities and social sciences of the FSU (1917–91). We also organise online and in-person events; promote Russian language learning; publish the SCRSS Digest; and support cultural contacts between the UK, Russia and the FSU. We are a membership-based organisation and a UK registered educational charity: Charity No. 1104012. We receive no external funding and are run entirely by volunteers.

SCRSS Digest

The Society's journal is published three times a year. It is mailed to our membership, sold at events and published in PDF format with free access on our website. The journal includes features on Soviet, Russian and FSU culture and history; reviews; and membership news. We welcome book review copies from publishers, as well as suggestions from authors for potential articles: contact the SCRSS Digest Editor on ruslibrary@scrss.org.uk. Please note: we do not pay authors. Visit www.scrss.org.uk/publications.htm to view recent issues.
